

REGISTRATION PROCESS

- Your enquiry will be received by email or phone – please note that we will get back to you as soon as we can, which may take a little longer during especially busy times
- Any information required will then be sent through by email
- If an appointment is required - a time and date will be offered
- A confirmation email will then follow with a registration form and a pre-assessment form attached. This will need to be completed and returned prior to any initial appointment
- Normally your therapist or practitioner will then be your main point of contact from then on
- Invoices are emailed, your confirmation email will contain details about your invoice and how to pay.
